

FEDERICO FOSCALE

---

PRESIDENT FINANCIAL AND CONTRACTUAL AFFAIRS

- Federico Foscale is an Italian-born Swiss entrepreneur active in the field of Investment Banking and Corporate Finance.
- He was born in Milan in 1974 and he is married with one daughter.
- He earned a BA in Political Science from Univeristà degli Studi di Macerata and a Master's degree and Executive education in Finance.
- He began his career in investment banking at Chase Manhattan Bank and later worked at Banca del Gottardo and JP Morgan where he carried out various activities related to M&A, Private Equity, Venture Capital, Leverage Finance, Capital Markets and Strategic Consulting.

- In 2006, he founded the Lombard Network Group, which provides Investment Banking, Corporate Finance and Strategic Consulting services to private, corporate, and institutional clients.
- The Lombard Network Group is based in Lugano, Switzerland, and has offices in Milan, London, and soon in the United States.
- Federico Foscale has received numerous awards and recognitions throughout his career.
- In addition to his entrepreneurial activities, Federico Foscale is involved in various philanthropic and charitable activities, including the Foscale Foundation, which supports educational projects for children and young people in Switzerland.
- He practiced Rugby at competitive level and the martial art of Sambo.
- He is also creator of the note In Fact, an “on invitation only” innovative editorial concept via e-mail.
- Federico Foscale’s family is well known in Italy, His uncle, Silvio Berlusconi - past Italian Prime Minister - was founder of Fininvest Group: an Italian Holding Company with majority stake in Mediaset, Mediolanum Bank, Mondadori, Teatro Manzoni and dismissed stake in AC Milan and Standa. His father Giancarlo was CEO for over 25 years of Fininvest Group.